

ELECTRIC UTILITY STORM RESPONSE AND RECOVERY SUMMIT

HOSTED BY LAFAYETTE CONSOLIDATED GOVERNMENT
AND LAFAYETTE UTILITIES SYSTEM (LUS)

LUS MISSION STATEMENT:

As a publicly owned utilities system, we provide high-quality, competitively priced services that exceed our customers' expectations, and contribute to the Consolidated Government to support other community needs.

TUESDAY, APRIL 23, 2024

8:45 AM - 3:30 PM

SUMMIT AGENDA

8:00 AM REGISTRATION

8:45 AM WELCOME AND OPENING ADDRESS
Monique B. Boulet, Mayor-President, Lafayette, LA

9:00 AM NERC COMPLIANCE: THE IMPACT OF RELIABILITY STANDARDS ON
LOUISIANA UTILITIES
Summer Esquerre - 1898 & Co. part of Burns &
McDonnell

10:15 AM BREAK

10:30 AM STAYING AHEAD: CYBERSECURITY
FUNDAMENTALS ADMIST EVOLVING
RISKS & REGULATIONS
Robin Berthier, Ph.D. - Network Perception

11:45 PM LUNCH
Provided by 1898 & Co. part of Burns &
McDonnell

1:00 PM LESSONS LEARNED: UTILIZING OMS
DURING SEVERE WEATHER EVENTS
Alec Pahl - Open Systems, Inc.

2:00 PM BREAK

2:15 PM THE SYSTEM OPERATOR: "THE MAN
BEHIND THE CURTAIN"
Tyler Delcambre - LUS
Chris Domingue - LUS

3:15 PM SUMMIT CLOSING
Monique B. Boulet, Mayor-President, Lafayette, LA
Jeff Stewart, LUS Director

Summer Esquerre
1898 & Co.

Robin Berthier, Ph.D.
Network Perception

Alec Pahl
Open Systems, Inc.

Tyler Delcambre
LUS

Chris Domingue
LUS

COLORADO STATE UNIVERSITY

Seasonal Hurricane Forecasting

Another above-average hurricane season is in the forecast for 2024. A prediction issued on April 4, 2024 by scientists at Colorado State University says there will be at least 23 named storms and 11 hurricanes — five of which will be Category 3 or higher.